Summer Bridge Program

June 29-July 18, 2014

High school juniors and seniors will spend three weeks on the beautiful campus of the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico for a creative summer bridge program. In addition to creative classes, such as poetry and art, students will be able to advance their skills in Math and English. They will be engaged in field experiences to nearby galleries, museums, and Native communities, such as Pueblo Feast Days. Students will participate in hands-on workshops to build college readiness. They will each receive three college credits to begin their college transcripts.

Application Process:

1. Application
2. $25.00 Application fee
