

AG Announcements – 4/20/15

On Friday at noon, Bridget Galvin will be presenting “How to get into college and have fun doing it!” She has an informative, useful and fun presentation about applying for and getting accepted into college. This presentation is geared towards sophomores and juniors but all who are interested are welcome. Please bring your lunch to Ashley’s room at noon on Friday for this great presentation!

This is a reminder to seniors that you and your families are invited to the Class of 2015 Senior breakfast! Hopefully you received an invitation in the mail last week, but if you did not you are still invited. The sophomore class will be serving breakfast in the MPR on Tuesday from 7:30-8:30am. Seniors, bring your families and your appetites!

Sophomores who signed up to help out with senior breakfast, please remember to be on time for your shifts on Tuesday (set your alarm clocks!). If you have any questions see Ashley.

Spring Intensive Travel (May 2016) to Europe!

We will take a journey to cobblestone streets and busy town squares of beautiful Prague, enchanted Budapest, picturesque Bratislava, and stylish Vienna. Please talk to Svetlana if you are interested. If you have instructions for registration, please do so!

Yearbooks were shipped to our school. Printed memories of this school year are coming soon Please buy Yearbook now!

There will be a mandatory junior class meeting tomorrow at noon in Bob's room. We will be finalizing the plan for prom and talking about orientation. All juniors are expected to attend.

Spring Prom this Saturday at the Alaska Experience theatre, downtown 4th Ave next pastel blue building right next to the bright yellow building. Tickets on sale everyday this week at lunch.

Chaperones are needed for prom, please ask your parents and contact Bob, Danielle, or Aisatou.

Wilderness First Responder Intensive

Meeting this Wednesday at 12:00 in Relo 1. Rosa has a finalized itinerary for the winter intensive including accommodations . All that is left is paperwork! Come by and grab the information!