

College Transition

Steller students and parents,

Steller graduate Tore Banta will be visiting this Thursday, December 3rd to discuss his experience attending Carleton College, a liberal arts school in Minnesota. Students and seniors especially are welcome to ask questions about the college application process, going to school out of state and picking a field of study at college, in addition to his personal experience studying at Carleton.

The event will take place in Rosa's classroom (1st relocatable).
Time: During lunch
