

With the focus of bringing stories to life, this intensive partners with the Anchorage International Film Festival to bring you independent films and filmmakers from around the world.

We will:

-  analyze an array of films
  -  work with local filmmakers
  -  attend festival events
- school hours)
-  develop original ideas and take them as far as we can
  -  and we will interact with production crews, directors, actors, producers, animators, writers, editors, and more

If you like movies, come explore

... ..

Please do not consider this workshop if PG-13 movies are an issue.
