Formatted: Font: (Default) Times New Roman

A. PREAMBLE

The Steller Community is comprised of the students, parents and staff of Steller Secondary Alternative School in Anchorage, Alaska. Steller’s mission is, “Inspiring a community of independent, confident, self-directed learners.” These bylaws define the self-governance of the Steller community, while recognizing that Steller exists within the context of the Anchorage School District and state and federal law. In keeping with Steller’s mission, our governance is intended to maximize student empowerment and enable collaborative decision-making based on listening to all. Consistent with order and fairness, the Steller Community values an informal process of governance open to divergent ideas, flexible to experimentation, and striving for thoughtful deliberation and consensus.

B. STRUCTURE OF STELLER GOVERNANCE

The Steller governance structure has four parts, each with its own decision-making process for issues of concern to its members. These parts are: 1) Op Group, led by students, 2) Parent Group, led by parents, 3) Staff, and 4) the Principal. In addition, some decisions require cooperation among these groups. These bylaws empower the groups to work together in committees, and to gather as a full community for town hall meetings that invite all members to participate and vote.
